

POD TUNE REVIEWS

"Awe in the face of something larger than we can comprehend..."

A Closer Listen

"A serene, textural album of ambience..."

VICE/The Creator's Project

"Beautiful and esoteric..."

CMUSE

"Tender and evocative..."

The Wire

"Its heart is in the right place..."

The Quietus

"Like an ancient sonic haiku..."

Radio Venice

"Original and accessible..."

KZLU

"Pure ambient joy..."

Feminatronic

"Coherent and thoughtful..."

Polyphonia

"Ambient music based on whale songs has no business being this good..."

LA Weekly

"Incredible and relaxing..."

Inventory

"The whales would approve..."

The Brooklyn Rail

"One of the most underrated musical collaborations in the history of ever..."

Lost At E Minor

"A sense of excitement and energy..."

Psychology Today

"Mesmerizing..."

Care2

"Shimmering lushness..."

Stationary Travels

"Adds enigma instead of subtracting it..."

The Grid

"A hauntingly beautiful album..."

The Dodo

"A sonic tapestry evoking oceanic experiences..."

Landscape Music

"Interspecies compilation between humans and whales..."

Spin

"Calming, beautiful, ocean inspired music..."

One World/One Ocean

"Transcendentally minimalist..."

Vuhneeshun

"Downright delightful..."

See The Elephant

"Devoted to ocean conservation..."

Mosaic Magazine

"Highly intimate connection with the sonic manifestation of whales..."

A2 Magazine

"Unites art and activism..."

Santa Monica Daily Press

"To be able to jam with the humpbacks was an absolute joy..."

Mikael Jorgensen (Wilco)

"Soothing..."

KCRW

"A great tea album..."

Global Tea Hut

"A journey through mythic imaginary landscapes..."

The Dark Mountain Project

"Music the way nature intended..."

The Incidentally

"The Adele of Whales..."

BFM Digital